Adan was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, and tio whose love for his family shaped every part of his life. His greatest joy was spending time with those he cherished, especially his daughter and constant sidekick, Mechila. Where Adan was, she was—an inseparable pair whose bond brought light to everyone around them.

He was a man of simple pleasures and big passions. Adan loved cheering on the Green Bay Packers, taking country cruises, enjoying ice cream, and relaxing with family and friends. He had a lifelong love for motorcycles and lowrider cars, and he could watch Big Foot for hours with a smile on his face. Above all he had a special love for his daughters and son Peanut. His humor, warmth, and protective nature made him beloved by all who knew him.

Adan enjoyed traveling and dreamed of seeing the world with his wife by his side. At home, he found joy in cooking for his wife and daughters and watching his favorite shows—Syfy, Discovery Channel, the cooking channel, and football. His presence filled every room with laughter, comfort, and love. Adan will be deeply missed, remembered for his big heart, his loyalty, and the way he made life brighter for everyone fortunate enough to know him.
