Andrew Huerta Lujan, 46, passed away on Wednesday, July 15, 2026. Please take a moment to share a kind thought or memory with Andrew's family at www.andersonbethany.com.

On December 22, 1979, Andrew was born to Socorro Huerta and Blas Lujan Sr. in Artesia, New Mexico. He was a member of Church on the Move and attended Freedom and Recovery, where he built strong connections and found support through faith and community.

Andrew loved spending time with his friends and family, especially his son, Jordan. He enjoyed riding his bike around town, grabbing a meal at his favorite restaurants, and turning up his music loud. He had a natural talent for building things out of scraps, if he had the pieces, he could make something out of them.

He was a big fan of the 49ers, WWE wrestling, and movies, especially Marvel films. Superman was his favorite, and he never got tired of watching anything that brought action, excitement, or a good story.

Andrew lived with energy, grit, and a big personality that made him unforgettable. He will be deeply missed by everyone who loved him.

“ Andrew I'll never forget how you were there when my dad passed away. Your one of the ones I considered as a best friend. You always checked on me and you were there for me when mark passed away also. You told me to grieve however long I needed and if I needed anything let you know and you'd try to help. I'm forever grateful for the comfort you gave me and how easy it was to talk to you. I miss you my friend. I wish you were here. I'll never forget you!
