“ Dear Iliene and family, You have our sympathy. Mom and I have often discussed the Wolfe family and the good service that we got. It was more like dealing with friends instead of business associates. We sold the funeral home in 1986 because the formaldehyde made me sick. Mom is now at Wesbury because of a broken hip and heart attack and is now in a wheel chair. I also am at Wesbury in a villa. Mom is now 92 and has short term memory problems but can remember the past very well. My health has improved since moving here but I have to take many precautions because I am sensitive to many things. But I thank God for what I can do. Again, you have our sympathy. Your friends, Loretta and Bill
