“ To Billie, you were such a sweet person, I loved cleaning for you, we had some great talks, I have thought of you many times since I moved, I miss you Billie, God be with you. To Kay and Gail, I cleaned for Billie for almost 2 years! I grew to love her as a friend, I am sorry this message is getting to you so late, but I moved to Maine in June, and I just found out about Billie. I am sorry for you and your families. my love and thoughts are with you.

“ Although I had not spent any time with Billie in recent years, I always enjoyed her and her spunky personality. We used to sit on the bleachers and cheer our boys on when they played Little League together.

“ Billie was a very special person. I met her when my mom entered Casa Maria, the same day that Billie did this past June. She always had a twinkle in her eyes! I enjoyed talking and visiting with her, and will always remember her wise and thoughtful comments. Heaven has gained a neat lady. She is now at peace. Prayers are with you all at this very difficult time.
