On December 28, 1967, Bryan Eric Lopez was born to Benjamin Arthur Lopez and Maria Elena Lopez Martinez in Roswell, NM. Bryan was a professional painter, construction worker, and carpenter. He was the maintenance supervisor for Raintree apartments. He took pride in his work and enjoyed what he did. He was a huge fan of lowriders and classic cars. He loved going to car shows to check out all the rides and loved telling Danielle about them. Bryan was a strong, loving, and devoted man who took good care of his family and friends. Bryan loved his children, his baby girl Krystal, his son Eric and his two angels, Brianna, and Denise, who he is now with. He loved his entire family, and it was felt when around him. He adored his baby sisters and was their protector. He loved his older brother and always told Danielle, "I'm my brother's keeper." He took great pride in caring for his family. He was a great father to his children and a great father to his stepson, he loved them all dearly. He was engaged to the love of his life, his lady, Danielle Garcia, and they had planned to wed in the coming summer. The love he brought to her, and her son was the calm to her storm. Bryan loved to cruise with his lady and jam to oldies, country, and Spanish. He loved taking Danielle and Damian out of town to shop and experience new things. He was a devoted fan of his favorite football team, the Dallas Cowboys, and enjoyed the barbecues and family gatherings at his suegros. Bryan, my love, we will miss you dearly and keep you in our hearts forever, forever, and ever, amen. When attending my love's services, his family and I ask that masks are worn for everyone's safety. We express our appreciation to all.

HE ONLY TAKES THE BEST

God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be;
So he put his arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to me."
With tearful eyes, we watched you,
And saw you pass away;
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay;
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard-working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

The family would like to give a heartfelt thank you to the doctors and nurses in the ICU unit at Eastern New Mexico Medical Center of Roswell, New Mexico.

Bryan's tribute was written in his honor by his family.
