“ I believe Casey was one of God’s angels sent to be with us for a short while to help us here on earth. He always smiled, had an amazingly positive attitude and dealt with whatever came his way. I feel so blessed to have had him in my life. While sometimes I thought I was helping him, he was really helping me. He taught me to see the simplicity in life and how to enjoy life under any circumstance. He had a heart that knew no boundaries and an easiness about him. His generosity surpassed any I have ever seen. I will miss him dearly. I was reminded by a friend that my little angel is now watching over me. I truly believe that to be true and know that he is now with God in all his glory.

Blessings and condolences to all of the family as I know your hearts are heavy in this time of grief. I am grieving as well and find peace in knowing what a wonderful person Casey was and that there had to be a reason God called him home.

Love,

Marie Porter
