“ 4 long years have passed since your passing. There's not a day that goes by that I don't think of you. April 29th will always be a very sad day in my life. It is the day that I forever lost my best friend, my soulmate, my husband. But I have to remember that it is also the day that your suffering came to an end. You were always such a busy man. I can not imagine what you must have felt sitting in that bed for two long years. You asked me to never let your grandson Armando David Luis Gallardo forget about you. I will keep that promise to you. He was going to be 2yrs old when you passed. He will be 6 years old in a few days. He is growing into such a handsome smart boy. You would be so proud of him. You will always be in our hearts and memories. Your love will live in our hearts always.💔
