On November 10, 1930, Della Mae Webb was born to Floyd and Lola Gibson in Bronte, Texas. After graduating from High School, she filled her days with being an amazing Bookkeeper and Secretary for many years. On August 29, 1950, Della married her soul mate and one true love, Joel Webb, in San Angelo, Texas.

Della loved to wake up every morning early, have her coffee, and read her Bible. She loved the Lord. On her spare time, she loved to play instruments such as the fiddle and mandolin. She also made a very good hand on a horse. Della adored her family more than anything. She was the most loving and kind wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend anyone could ask for. Della was deeply loved and will be profoundly missed not only by her family and friends but by all those fortunate enough to have known her sweet kind soul.

She will be reunited in our Heavenly Kingdom with her and Joel's only daughter Brenda Bachman.

Those left to eternally treasure and cherish memories of Della are her husband of 69 years, Joel Webb; daughters; husband, John Bachman; granddaughter, Kimberly Bizzell and husband David and their four children: Jacey, Tuf, Tye and Tryp; grandson, Kyle Bachman and wife Sydney and their son Alec; and grandson, Kody Bachman and wife Diana and their two daughters: Paizlee and Preslee.

Those chosen as Pallbearers are: Kody Bachman, Kyle Bachman, David Bizzell, Shane Webb, Joel Webb, and Robert Flowers.

Honorary Pallbearers are Della's seven great-grandchildren: Jacey, Tuf, Paizlee, Alec, Tye, Preslee, and Tryp.

Della's tribute was written in her honor by her loving family.
