Faustino was born February 15, 1947 to Salvador Rodriguez and Mercedes Lopez in Nayarit, Mexico.

Faustino was better known as "Chano" to all that loved him. Chano was the most honest, kind hearted, generous and hardworking man you ever want to meet. He always had a bright smile and kind word for everyone that knew him. At the young age of 5 years old he worked in gardening to help provide for his family in Mexico. Around the age of 15 he found a new life in America where he was able to develop his artistry and many talents in gardening. He started his career working at Disneyland in California as a groundskeeper nurturing its many beautiful gardens. Chano took great pride in his work and was extremely dedicated to all the people he worked for, Chano took care of every detail without ever being asked, he just did it. Driving around Roswell you can easily pick out his beautiful gardens in the homes and business which holds the mark of his artistry. Heavens gardens will grow brighter.

Chano lived his dream of becoming an American, in his heart he was a proud American. He will be greatly missed by all his family and many friends who loved him.

He was a devoted Catholic who lived his faith by always giving thanks and praise to God. To know Chano was to dearly love Chano. ADIOS Mi AMIGO!

Faustino is survived by his wife, Esperanza Guevara; stepsons, Richard, Roy and Danny Guevara; stepdaughters, Bonnie Carrasco and Virgie Lara; numerous grandkids as well as family in Nayarit, Mexico.
