“ Mr. Talbert,
Our time as neighbors was only 5.5yrs and I enjoyed every moment of the laughs and joy that I was blessed to share with you and Mrs. Talbert. I am here for whatever your family needs, especially for your dear and loving wife. I have fond memories of watching you mow your grass and take care of your home. My heart is heavy but my love for you is strong as I know the struggles that you've endured until you left this life yesterday morning to be with our Holy Savior, Jesus Christ. You were a strong man for so long and you were like the grandpa that I haven't had in my life in many, many years. I loved seeing you at the donut shop almost every time that I was there. I always said that I would go get you donuts and coffee but it was one of the few outings that you were able to do that was close to home. I give you my love as you enter his Kingdom. I promise to always do what I can (or what Mrs. Talbert will allow me to) so please don't worry. She has an amazing support system that you two created together. Your children were instilled with such positive values and inner strength due to the way they were raised. I thank you for that. You will be missed extremely by not only me but anybody that ever had the opportunity to have had you in their presence. I ask that anyone that has a heart to remember that you fought a good fight and your love was never in vain. The love of your life will be okay knowing that you are preparing a new and healthy life with our Savior. And I know that you are healthy and probably mowing the grass in Heaven. I care and love your family dearly and like I said, I am always here for them. Until we meet again in Heaven one day, all my love and prayers...Godspeed my friend....

Love,
Dionna Vallejos

What a beautiful tribute Dionna. I don't know either of you but can tell that you and Mr Talbert are Christians, it shows in your tribute. Thanks for sharing.
