

Garland Troy Berg

May 19, 1967 - March 8, 2018

The family of Garland Troy Berg, 50, of Roswell, New Mexico, would like to ask all family and friends to join them in a Celebration of Life to be held at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home Chapel on Saturday, March 24, 2018, 4:00 PM. Celebrate Troy's life by visiting www.andersonbethany.com to offer a memory or expression of sympathy for his family.

Gone before to be reunited with Troy were his father, Garland Roy Berg whom he loved, respected, admired and missed dearly; grandparents: Albert and Gladys Berg, TFJ Billy Pyrratt; and grandsons: Tray Brandan, Tannan Asher Berg, Kaidan Brandon Harris.

Surviving to treasure Troy's memory are his mother, Gwendolyn Elaine Berg; sister, Teresa and husband, Edward Abrejera; mother of his children, Annette Berg; sons: Brandan Troy, Ryan Corey; daughters: Reba Allyse, Kristan Ashley and husband, Brandon Harris; precious granddaughters: Mercedez Amanda, Taylor Kylie Case, Jerikka Berkley Berg, Talan Lynn, Haidan Kristine Harris; expected grandson, Prestan Brandon Harris. Troy was cherished by a number of aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews and nieces.

Troy had a special awareness and drawing unto the broken hearted and deemed them special to himself. While Troy had many friends both casual and professional, he was no respecter of persons, he respected and cared for everyone, and never met a stranger. Though we know some may not be able to attend, we cherish your presence in spirit and heart. Troy will always be remembered as an especially kind, loving, helpful and generous person.

He had been a wonderful and supportive husband, and attentive father. Troy was involved with all the things his children did, which include bull riding, fifteen years coaching baseball, go-cart racing, motor cross, Boy Scouts Leader and a tearful & proud Dance Recital Spectator to his daughter many times throughout the years.

Troy spent several years Pastoring children's church at World Harvest Church, having the largest children's bus ministry to date. He then was Sr. Ordained Pastor of River of Life Church, until merging with Pastor Danny Sons at Midway Assembly. Troy always stressed not to look to man, but to have a personal relationship with the Lord, regardless of where you were in life, or whom you are, and should always know the grace of God's love for you and through you.

The family will be gathering at 3008 S. Louisiana, Roswell, New Mexico, after Troy's Celebration of Life.

Troy's family lovingly wrote this tribute in his honor.

“ My Dear Cousin, Friend, Teacher, We spent so much of our childhood together and I want to thank you for feeding me mud pies and for me not knowing I wasn't suppose to, climb trees, teaching me how to ride motorcycles, and building forts, and drive a standard, teaching me when I fell down and scraped my knees and elbows to get up dust myself off and keep going. You was there to push me down but to pick me up too. Toss me out of grocery carts. lol. Lots of tears but so many smiles. You taught me to be tough but how to love as well as only a cousin could do. You are loved and missed! Forever and Always Teto!!!! Love the Crybaby!!!!

“ I am so sorry to my Aunt Gwen, Annette, and cousins that me and my family didn't get to go to Roswell and rejoice in Father God and our Savior Jesus Christ in taking Troy home. I will miss talking to Troy for hours on the phone. But I am excited for the day I get to see him in heaven again. We love you Troy.
I love y'all so much. With all my love Steffie Pyeatt
