

Gary Lobb

December 25, 1964 - December 20, 2024

Gary Samuel Lobb, passed away on Friday, December 20, 2024, in Roswell, New, Mexico. As per the Lobb Family request, there will be no memorial service held at this time. Please take a moment and share a kind thought or memory with Gary's family at andersonbethany.com.

Gary Samuel Lobb was born on December 25, 1964, to Plazie and Opal Lobb in Clovis, New Mexico. His family often referred to him as the "miracle baby born of Christmas Day". Gary graduated from Goddard High School before beginning his career as security guard at Danny Blount Security with his high school best friend Danny, and then at Eastern New Mexico Medical Center, where he worked for many years, and then at the Roswell Daily Record newspaper.

Those left to eternally treasure and cherish memories of Gary are sisters Dottie Bryant and Sue Seaman, brothers Ronald and Kelly Lobb, former spouse Sue Ann Lobb, stepchildren Joey Aragones, Jesse Baltier, and Jonathan Juarez, step grandchildren Nicco, Jade, Justice, Jacob, Jerimiah, and Jadiah, his best friend Pete Martinez, his two pets Rocky and Roscoe, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Gary is preceded in death by his parents Plazie and Opal Lobb, brothers Carl Marler, Glenn Marler, Jack Lobb, Jim Lobb, David Lobb, and Stevie Lobb, sisters Nancy Williams, Ellie Wolthausen, and Plazie Dale Williams.