“ Gary was the first person who was nice to me when I arrived in Roswell a little over a year ago, and he became my golfing buddy. We each scored an ace on the number 11 hole, and then he proceeded to have two more while in my company. I always thought I was good luck for Gary, but the truth is I was lucky to have him as my friend.

“ Oh goodness Gary Padilla... how is this possible? It seems like yesterday we all hung out in the neighborhood, playing vacant lot baseball, crack the whip in the Lara's backyard, or seeing each other at church. Back when life was simple. We can only imagine the smile on your face as you stepped into heaven and into the arms of your mama and daddy with Roger and Carl close behind. Rest In Peace friend. Hug our family for us. And thank you for sharing your life with us.
