“ Estella and Family

Please know our family shares deepest sympathies with the loss of your beloved son, Father, Grandfather, Brother and Uncle Roy.

We know how it is for Mom to have a favorite child as Roy and we are envious. However, that special bond is great for Moms.

As Roy struggled with some issues in life, it is comforting to know he awoke to make things right with himself and others.

Please also find comfort in his love for his Mother, family and Cowboys!. Assuredly those loves provided him with much joy and pleasure. And our memories of the things he loved will provide us all with lifelong memories to cherish and provide us comfort during this time of great loss.

With kind regards,

Respectfully, Tom Jennings

“ My Uncle Roy was the greatest he was loving and funny. He was always there to hear anything I had to say and would give me input. I know he's no longer here with us but we will always have the greatest memories of him. Especially when he would say "crazy orangutan" he gave each of my kids a Nicknames and I will remind them that he gave them those names they love their Uncle Roy dearly and will miss him.
