“ I just found out about Jack's passing. He and I were buddies from the Post Office in South Holland, IL. We shared a common passion for Indiana University Basketball and even after he moved to New Mexico we would speak frequently during basketball season about the Hoosiers. He always sent me his IU Publications after he had thoroughly examined every article. My family has very fond memories of Jack coming to stay at our house and going to the Holiday Classic basketball games in Indianapolis, IN. He was a great friend and he is truly missed.
