

Janice Gnatkowski

April 15, 1924 - April 28, 2007

Longtime Lincoln county resident, Janice Gnatkowski, 83, passed away April 28, 2007 in the Gerald Champion Regional Medical Center in Alamogordo. Janice graduated from Texas Women's University with a degree in Art. She had many talents and interest and spent most of her life devoted to raising sheep and cattle. Janice was co-founder of the Sheep to Shawl wool promotion booth and the Ladies Lead Class at the New Mexico State Fair. Janice is survived by her sons, Pete and Mel, their wives, and three grandchildren. Her husband of fifty-five years, A. W. "Gnat" Gnatkowski preceded Janice in death in 2002.

A memorial service followed by fellowship and a potluck meal will be held at 10 am Monday, May 7, at the Ancho Community Church, Ancho, NM (north of Carrizozo).

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Ancho Community Church or a charity of your choice.

Services are under the direction of Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory.
