“Jarrod, my precious son. There is finally justice for you. Eric Aldaz has been arrested and is going to be spending a very long time in jail. He may not have served very much time for killing you, but he will now. I'm glad he won't be able to hurt or kill anyone else's child. I feel a little better, but the pain is still there. I love you so much and I miss you. Love you D-Man. Mom

“Oh son, I miss you so very much. Each day that passes it gets more and more hard to deal with. Some people think I should already be over it, but I'm not because there was no justice for you. The monster that killed you is still going on with his life. I hope he will mess up and spend a lot of time in jail for something else. I hope it doesn't take him killing someone else before this happens. I love you so much, and hopefully soon I will be with you. I love you son.
