

Jim Morgan

July 24, 1953 - September 14, 2015

On September 14, 2015, at 2:25 p.m., the world lost the greatest husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother and uncle. Jim Darrel Morgan passed away at home, after his battle with cancer. Jim had the kindest soul; he was a very compassionate and loving man, who loved greatly and was greatly loved by all who knew him.

Self-employed with Paint and Body most of his adult life, Jim also worked at TMC/Nova Bus for 23 years as an assembler. His passion was painting, hunting, fishing, camping and watching the Dallas Cowboys, which he passed on to both his sons.

Jim joins these, preceding him in death in Heaven: his parents, Harold and Florilla Morgan; brothers: Paul, Mike, Gerald, and Dwight Morgan, all of Roswell.

Those left to carry on his legacy are his wife, Debra Morgan, of the family home; daughters: Sandy Heath and husband Robert and Krystal Blossom and her husband Aaron; sons: Jimmy Morgan and his wife Kellie and Harold Morgan and his wife Kathy. Also surviving Jim are his grandchildren: Jerid, Courtney, Zachary, Kyla, Krysta, Kayley, Fantasia; great-grandchildren: Karlee, Kristopher, Samantha, Julisa, Jeramyah and Kaydence, all of the above residing in Roswell. Additional survivors include sisters: Shirley Nelson and her husband Stan, of Las Cruces, Sheila Dalton, Shera Paul and her husband Jerry, all of Roswell.

A viewing will be Thursday, September 17, 2015, 8:00 to 5:00 PM, at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home. A graveside service is scheduled on Friday, September 18, 2015, 1:00 PM, at South Park Cemetery. Brother Richard Smith will officiate.

“ Words can not express the sadness we all are feeling at this moment. You put up a fight like non other. You amazed us at every turn, you handled your illness on your terms not the illnesses. You were the toughest when things were at there worst. All you wanted was for your family to be taken care of. Your fight is now over, time to rest. We love you my dear brother, till we see each other again. Love and miss you so much. Always your little sister.
