“ To my loving family:

Let your hearts not be troubled; for mama (my auntie) is no longer suffering. She no longer need medication to adjust her blood pressure, no longer need to check her blood sugar, and most of all she no longer need dialysis so her kidneys can function. Mama is now walking around in paradise with God, her mother and father, her sisters, brothers, and children. She is now dancing and singing, stomping her feet to those old church songs. So lift your heads up and know that she went to be with the lord. This is the time for us to get our life together so we can go to paradise as well.

God bless you all,
