“ I meet Joe when he started working at RPD, Joe was instrumental in making our new computer system a success. I know we probably all drove him crazy at times when the system went live. But in all honesty he never showed any frustration with our constant requests for help. Because of his attention to detail and his knowledge of computer networking the police department finally has a sucessful system. He was appreciated by everyone and will be missed greatly. We will miss his smile and helpful attitude. God Bless you all, and comfort you in this time of loss

“ Since hearing about Joe's passing, I've reflected on our friendship starting in high school. He was in halo traction recuperating at home after a serious car accident. I would visit him regularly and we shared the woes of life or so we thought. I've always loved his humor, his smarts, and his direct nature. I knew he was a real friend to me. I was so glad to catch up with him a few years ago, meet Hilda and JoJo, and hear about what gave him joy and meaning....his family. May all of you find comfort in what you meant to him. God be with you in your loss of a good man who will be missed by many.

“ I love you Joe Peeples... You married my friend, you loved her kids and grandkids as your own. Your daughter JoJo is a beautiful reflection of you. Thank you for being my friend and for sharing your life with me. Heaven is a bit brighter ... They must have needed a good humor man! One with a great smile and smug attitude! You will remain in my heart forever.... Amen!

“ Joe was a great person. He was always up to something in high school. He teased me so much that I thought he hated me! But that was not. I remember when he worked for Farmers Bros. after high school. I wish his family comfort. Goodbye friend.

“ Smart, and funny. That's how I remember Joe. We had some great times growing up. One of Joe's best attributes was a great BS detector - if someone was full of it, Joe would know and he'd let them know. A favorite "Joe" story: he and Jeff McVay were visiting me in the DFW area. The three of us were hanging with someone I knew who happened to be a pompous ass. When this guy smugly tried to correct Joe on the use of the word "jefe," Joe ripped him in a way that only he could. You KNOW what I'm talking about! That was 20+ years ago, and I still laugh about it.

God speed, Joe.
