

Lisa Ann Cobos

May 28, 1966 - November 25, 2013

A rosary will be recited for Lisa Ann Cobos, 47, of Roswell on Thursday, November 28, 2013 at 7:00 pm at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home Chapel. A memorial service will be held on Friday, November 29, 2013 at 10:00 am at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church with Deacon Ernesto Martinez officiating. Lisa has gone to meet her Savior Lord Jesus Christ on Monday, November 25, 2013, surrounded by the love of her family.

Lisa was born May 28, 1966 in Roswell, NM to Vicente Velasquez and Ramona Rodriguez. Lisa was a St. Johns Religious Education teacher for many years and a secretary for both St. Johns and St. Peters.

Those left to cherish her memory are her loving husband of twenty-nine years, Orlando Cobos of the family home; her mother, Ramona Velasquez; brothers: Vicente Velasquez Jr and wife Julie; Rudy Velasquez and wife Corine; Fred Velasquez; sister, Eva and husband Anthony Perez; sister Ann Velasquez; brother-in-law, Michael Cobos; sister-in-law, Lisa and husband Julian Oropesa; brother-in-law, Joseph and wife Rose Cobos; father in-law, Manuel Cobos; nieces and nephews: Hector Augillera, Linda, Vicente III, Eric, Jennifer, Rudy Jr., Adriana, Breanna, Ivan, Fred Jr., Arianna, Sam Jr., Amanda Velasquez, Anthony Cobos, Savannah Cobos, Daniel Cobos, Breanna Cobos, Alexanderia Oropesa, Justice Villarreal, Alizia Villarreal, Joseph Cobos Jr. and loving neighbor Alexander Siemann. Lisa will be missed by all who knew her.

Lisa is preceded in death by her father, Vicente Velasquez and her mother in-law, Rosemary Cobos.

Today, I give back to God the awesome gift He gave me twenty nine years ago. A beautiful wife, to have and hold, we shared a lifetime of good memories while you were with me in this world. She gave me lots of love and support I ever could have wanted. She shared me with many people so God could touch their lives. Her smile was beautiful and I looked forward every day to seeing it. I saw her faith tested but she was a strong woman full of Gods understanding. I told her I don't know what I would do without her, so she lived for me. I told her when our bodies struggle, we have to keep our eyes on Jesus. Yes, I wanted more memories, but she needed rest. My wife is an Angel to me, she watched over me every day and blessed me with her smile. I will not say goodbye, but rather say, rest my love, until I see you again. Love Orlando.

In Loving Memory of Lisa A. Velasquez Cobos

Today, a beautiful woman has left us.

A light from our family has gone and sadness fills our hearts.

No Good-byes were said only plenty of "I Love Yous" and kisses on your forehead were left instead.

We know your struggles here on earth were long and hard but they're over now, sister of mine, youre finally home.

You were a Blessing from God to each one of us.

Although tears will flow, I give God thanks and praise for the memories I have of our time together.

You were always there to lend a helping hand,
always putting others before yourself,
even when your own times got rough,

you were still always thinking about us.
You fought all the way to the end and for that,
I give God thanks and praise again.
But now you can rest, Sister of mine.
No more pain, peace at last your finally home.
I only wish I could see you one more time to thank you for the love and joy you brought into our lives.
Just know you are forever loved.
You are and always will be forever in my Heart, Sister of mine. 11/25/13

“ Orlando and family, we are all very sorry to have just found out about Lisa. She was an inspiration to all of us as to the softness and loving spirit a lady can possess. May she rest in peace and may you know in your heart of hearts that she was loved by many on this earth. Thank you for sharing of yourselves with my children, they have many good memories of all the ventures you and her took them on. May god bless you and keep you.....Sincerely Lupe Morales and her family, Estephan and Ermino along with his family, Jessica, Britney and alex “ Landito there are no words that can help at this time but please know that many prayers are going your way for strength and peace during this difficult time. Your and Lisa's lives of worship brought glory to God's name. Lisa is a blessing to you, but you were always in God's plan. Your mom prayed for your future and God sent you as a blessing to Lisa at a young age because he knew how much you would love her, take care of her and be there for her. She is at peace in such a beautiful place that we can't even begin to comprehend. Someday we will all meet again.

Love you,

“ Orlando, our hearts are broken today, but somewhere through the pain we are able to smile. We think back to all the special times that we shared over the years, and how blessed we were to have had Lisa as a friend! We know that you believe in God's promise and one day we will all get to see her again. Rev 21:4

“ Orlando, my very deepest condolences to you, and Ramona, for your very beautiful and very special daughter.

Orlando, Lisa was so special and your love together was so special. I feel blessed to have been a friend of you both for so many years. Lisa is sleeping in peace now in the arms of Jesus, but one day you will be together again. My prayer is that she rest in peace until that time, and may her love for you, Orlando, be with you each and every day.. All my love to you Orlando and Ramona and the rest of your family

Mr. Cobos,
So sad to hear the loss of Mrs. Cobos, you were both a blessing to the youth in my generation, you both helped so many stay out of the streets and follow another direction. I now serve the lord faithfully and able to say Mrs.Cobos is now living the ever lasting life with our Lord Jesus Christ and Savior. My prayers go out to the family so that God may give you the peace and strength. Love Terry (Molina)Contreras

“ My condolences to the Velasquez/Cobos families. I grew up with Lisa we shared many memories as young girls. I will never forget the day we went on a joy ride in her dads car at the age of 14. Two young girls enjoying their independence for the first time even if it was just for an hour. The laughter and smiles that we both shared that day will never be forgotten. Rest in peace my friend
