Tribute Wall

“ I don't think there are enough words to express how much I miss you or how sad I am that you're no longer here.

I remember us playing in the woods and spending endless summer days together. We played baseball until the sun went down, and all the boys had crushes on you. We were so innocent back then. We didn't know how fast time would pass or how precious those moments really were.

I would give anything to go back to that endless summer when the days seemed to last forever, laughter came easy, and we were all so full of hope for the future.

The years have carried us in different directions, but those memories never left me. They remain some of the happiest moments of my childhood. I miss you, and I will always be grateful that I got to know you during those beautiful days when the world seemed so much simpler. Rest well, my friend. Hope that you
