What a wonderful tribute to your family, Linda. I remember your parents from Scotty's club in the late 60's and 70's. Take care, my old friend. May the peace and comfort that can come only from the Lord be the strength each day that you and the family can always lean upon and always place your hope in. Love, Debbie Blakley-Eaton

“ Mrs. Wilson was always so wonderful to us when we were there visiting and made us feel like part of her family too. I feel awful that you were unable to properly say goodbye to your momther, grandmother and mother-in-law, especially since it had been so soon since we lost Pa Jim. Your family has shown so much strength, kindness and grace. We are fortunate to have you as an example in our lives.

Please know that extra prayers are coming from Houston to comfort you. We love you all very much and are sorry we cannot be there tomorrow.

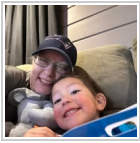

Much love- Amanda & Bryan Flynn

“ When I first joined the Tuesday Senior League bowling, Lorine was one of my first team mates. I enjoyed bowling with her. Many times, her wit and charm kept me going whenever I had a bad day. Have missed her since she quit bowling and have thought of her fondly ever since. My deepest condolences to her family. - George Lee, Roswell, NM

“ Linda, as I said on a text to you a month ago, your mom would be part of God's Kingdom Before 2015. I have a way of Knowing these things. I also said that you would now have peace knowing that she is in a better place and not suffering anymore. 2015 will be a good year for you. Best Wishes. Jack W.

Saddened by your loss, Linda. I had a feeling that you had a strong role model, as you are a living tribute to your mother's memory! May you know of no more sorrow.

Your Mother will watch over you now as they all watch over us in Heaven. She will be young and with God and out of any pain she ever had. God will carry you through this and hold you tightly in His arms. God Bless you and your family in this time of sorrow.

Linda,

You have been a caring and loving daughter to your Mom. She is resting now and is with our Lord. I was sitting with my 88 year old Mom when you called. I knew what the call concerned.

I just did not know what I wanted my Mom to hear. I did tell her after I listened to your message. I cried for your loss, then I prayed for you, your Brother, her Sister and the other close members of her family. Remember that you are loved by you dear friends in Texas. You have people that care for you and will become a second family. We will hold and comfort you when you need us to. We will let you be alone when you want to be alone. We love you and we want to help you get back from this sorryful time frame.

We will be sending flowers today.

Call be when you are own you way home. Let me know what help you will need when you get here. We will be there for you when you need us.

Love,

Janna and Darl Easton
