“ My darling MariFrank, I just found out the bad news.. I know that you are in heaven enriching lives and sharing your talents and beautiful personality.. you were such an inspiration to me at Hawthorne.. Your mentorship inspired my career of 35+ and going years in Telecom..

I will always remember your kindness, and warmth..

Rest in Peace my friend

“ Much like the others, I met Marifrank quite by chance and was very thankful that I did. Thanks to her I had the chance to write for the RDR and enjoy the renewal of my love for writing. I often wished I had stayed at the paper and had known her better. We both fought similar demons at work. Later I met her again at the Senior Center and hoped to go on one of the wonderful trips. Marifrank had a love for giraffes(or camels?) and really liked a llama picture I drew for the drawing class show. She bought the picture and I was so happy that my llama would have a good home in her home or office. We pretended it was the specie of cameloid she loved anyway. Like others I thought of calling her often, inviting her out to eat or remembering her when I saw a giraffe. Like the others I'm sorry I did not act more quickly. Seems like she would always be there..And now she is gone. RIP Marifrank. We miss you. Best wishes to friends and family, May we remember all the many good times. My love, Jane Wiggins

“ Marifrank was an especially kind and thoughtful friend to me when I moved from North Carolina to Illinois (Naperville) in 1974. We were colleagues working at Bell Laboratories Indian Hill location. I was only there two years but during that time she was wonderful to me & my family. We kept up for many years, at least at Christmas time. I am saddened to hear of her passing and giving thanks for her life. I know she loved living in Roswell and working with seniors. She wrote me about the marvelous trips she planned and took with them. I am sure there are many of us who mourn her passing.

“ Oh, my dear, dear Marifrank, It's so hard to believe that we've been friends for more than 40 years, but it's gone in a fleeting moment. You laughed when I told you Sunday that you and I are reminding me now of your mom and Velma. I'll have this urge to call you so many times because we talked so often, but I can't believe that you're not there anymore.

You gave me the biggest most beautiful gift on Sunday. With great feeling you said slowly, "I love you Grace." I could hear your smile in your voice. What a blessing you have been to so many people and to so many of God's beautiful creatures. Well done good and faithful soul.

Rest in the embrace of your Lord -- and give mom a hug for me.
