

Mark Joseph Baldwin

September 15, 1959 - October 20, 2019

MARK JOSEPH BALDWIN, 60, went to be with the Lord on Sunday, October 20, 2019, while relaxing in the mountains he loved. Please take a moment and share a kind thought or memory with Mark's family at www.andersonbethany.com.

Mark was born on Sept. 15, 1959, in Roswell, NM. He landed his "dream job" coming back to work with family at Main Trailer Sales in Roswell. Mark's first loves were Christ and a woman he met at a "business establishment," Starlett. He loved golf, fishing, the three Cs carving, camping, cars, and rooting for the Green Bay Packers and Detroit Tigers.

On July 27, 1985, Mark married Starlett Williams. Together, they had two children: Alysha McCready (Jordan) and William Ethan, who survive him.

SURVIVORS: Mark is also survived by his grandchild, Heather-Ann McCready; sisters: Cari Baldwin (Larry), and Melissa North (Anthony); and numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, and nephews.

PRECEDED: Mark's parents, William Baldwin and Gwen Dunning, preceded him in death, along with his stepfather, "Swede" Dunning.

SERVICES: Services will be held at Christ's Church, Roswell, NM, on Saturday, October 26, 2019, 10:00 AM.

Mark's tribute was lovingly written in his honor by his family.
