“ I love you grandma!!! 🦋💜☀️ You are my wisdom teacher and have walked by my side throughout my life sharing your prayers, words, laughs and gypsy spirit. I am blessed to be carrying all of you inside my heart, and feel closer to you now that you are with Spirit than when you were on this earth. I know you are happy now, and finally getting to stand in the beautiful paradise of angels and spirits that you always envisioned and painted. You and I are connected through time and love and God...you saw me in the little pink blanket and have filled my life with God inspired predictions ever since (which all have come true!!). I can hear the song "My Sweet Lord" and remember driving the back roads of Roswell at night with you and us blasting and singing the joy. I hold you in my heart every moment of every day and feel eternally grateful to have been blessed with such a Spirit filled, strong woman to have walked with me in this life. I feel you with me now, walking beside me and loving me always. We will always be together 💕

“ Mom, Thank you for all the love, memories, long talks, praying together, and oh, all those times we laughed till we cried. To know that you are no longer here of this world, or mine, it breaks my heart. But, I'm relieved that your pain and suffering is over. I'm so lucky to have had you in my life for 64 years. When I close my eyes and think of you, among my tears I can smile, because I know you're with God, rejoicing in his presence. Please come see me as you always promised!! I Love you, Mom Jeanne
