Mary was born on October 28, 1935, in Roswell, NM, to Augustin (Gus) Garcia & Jesusita (Jessie) Garcia. She was the eldest of the Garcia Family siblings: Tommy Ernest Garcia, Edward Garcia (Ramona), Virginia Lopez (Ray), Margaret Martinez, Cecelia Marquez, stepsister, Lionel Garcia (deceased), Dolores Vasquez (deceased), and Peter Jimenez (deceased).

Mary worked in the food industry as a young girl beginning at the family-owned Garcia Grocery Store, later she then worked for Randal's Grocery Store serving the community as a food clerk. She married George F. Jimenez and lived in California for 27 years before her return to Roswell, NM. While living in California, she was a pharmaceutical foreman for Zeliajor Pharmaceuticals. Our mother was always a positive inspiration to all who knew her, community-oriented, and always helped the less fortunate. She had always been known for having a giving heart, sending care packages to the Vietnam soldiers, and being loved by all she helped. Mary enjoyed crocheting, staying in touch with siblings, enjoyed watching grandchildren play sports, and making her special salsa. She had a hard life, with our father, remarried and life took a 360-degree turn, because of her marriage to George Jimenez.
