“ First met her in 1972. She had a friend named Lydia and they helped me through some tough times. Ran across each other through the years and would occasionally share a cup of coffee or a meal. She was always the same free spirit and had a kind word. Best memories are of dancing at Raymond's at the old motel 6. Rest In Peace.

There are moments when you lose a friend and you know there just aren't enough words to say because the loss is so very heartfelt. I was blessed to have Nada come into my life at a time when friends were truly a gift. Nada is and will always be a treasured memory for me. Please know that I have her family and her friends in my thoughts and prayers....

“ I'd never thought you would be gone so soon. I guess I thought we had plenty of time to get together to toast your retirement. I'm so sad I'll never get to do that with you. It sucks that you didn't get to enjoy it a little longer with us here on earth but, you're probably on a purple colored trike burning rubber among the clouds...Thank you for your friendship, personally and professionally. Miss you....Maddie
