

Pamela Baker

September 22, 1959 - April 8, 2008

Pamela J. Baker (PJ), 48, of Roswell, went to heaven on April 8, 2008.

PJ did many things in her lifetime and felt her greatest achievements were being a mother, friend, Dr. PJ, and Nana to everyone.

PJ was a very competitive softball player and coach. She enjoyed working with people who had disabilities and also enjoyed, bingo, fishing, having family round table, making quilts for those she loved and playing with her pets; Penelope, Coco and Max.

PJ was preceded in death by her parents, A.D. Burrell and Lavada Burrell Stinnett, a brother, Robert (Bob) Burrell, a sister Judy Orlean Burrell and a friend, Connie Smith.

PJ is survived by the love of her life, Wayne E. Davis; two sons, Aaron (Bubba) Burrell and his wife, Shaneil, and Jeremy Kern and wife Melissa; a daughter, Jennifer Morro and her fiancé, Todd Mohr; a brother, Jimmy Burrell and his wife, Nedra; a sister-in-law, Patricia Burrell; a sister, Susan Roland and her husband, J.D.; seven grand-children, Malachi (Leprechaun), Hannah (Banana Pie), Alexander (Junior), Makala, Miranda (Pumpkin Pie), Savannah (Moon Pie) and Lilly (Blueberry Pie); four nephews, Jamie, Robert, Jimmy, and Chris (Onion Head); four nieces, Michelle, Amanda (Kitty Kat), Kathleen and Sadie (Mousey); a special great-nephew, Little Baby Dee; special family friends, Gary, Mark, Sheila, K.K. Martha, Faye, Austin, Barbara, Chevette, Janet Corn, Caroline Anderson, Ariana Ditmore, Angie and Aaron Albert and their daughters Larisa and Jessica; and numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Her saying was when I die, it doesn't matter what kind of car I drove, the clothes I wore, how much money I had or what kind of house I lived in. As long as she knew her experiences made a difference in someone else's life.

Cremation is under the direction of Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory. Please share your thoughts and memories with the family in the online register book at andersonbethany.com Mother/Father/Hero

You were both mother and father Shouldering the load alone Doing your best
Filling the void Washing the clothes Earning the money Cooking the food
Making the repairs Nursing our wounds

Dealing with our changes Wiping the tears And correcting our mistakes

Your days were filled with chores Your nights were filled with concerns There was not much time for you It had to be a painful ordeal You had every right to be bitter But you weren't

Instead you just dove right in Showering us with more love Mending the tear
Endeavoring to keep us a family

I can never repay you That's impossible But I want you to know That you are an incredible woman A true role model And my favorite hero

“ The one thing that stands out to me about P.J. was the fact that she was extremely generous. A big part of her legacy she left behind were the gifts she had given to many people, my family included. Her gifts came in many different forms, sometimes it was just a smile or saying something funny when you are having a bad day. She was able to give so much of herself to others that she made people feel important and like they were family to her. I hope that it brings some comfort to her family and extended family to know that we were truly touched by her giving spirit and we have been inspired to show this same type of non-judgemental kindness to others in honor of her memory.

“ I will always remember Pam as a little girl. She was only 6 when Gary and I married. Pam had a bright and mischievous smile- and sense of humor! She was always telling silly jokes and kept us laughing! Her smile lit up the room. The most special memory I have of Pam was when Martha had surgery. She and Jennifer came to be with us in the hospital. Pam was there when we really needed her. She wasn't feeling well, but she was still came. They were a blessing to me that day. God bless each of you, and may He give you peace. Love always, Faye Coleman “ Rarely am I at a loss for words, but this time I am. Pam, Judy and I were as close as sisters when we were kids & the thought of both of them being gone is just overwhelming. Pammy was just always there when I needed her, even as adults and I will miss her all my life. Jimmie Lee, Susie, Jennifer, I'm here if you need me, and I love you. Pammy's with the family now.....
