BROTHER

You gave no one a last farewell,
Nor ever said good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
A million times we will cry.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place,
No one else can fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.

We will meet again someday
I know in a better place.
I thank God He made you our brother
While you were here on earth.

“ Robbie, my heart yearns for you so deeply. You were just embarking on an extraordinary journey of adulthood when senseless cruelty cut your life short. Yet, even in the face of such darkness, I remain resolute in keeping your radiant spirit alive and your memory aflame. I cherish the vibrant memories of sleepovers when you'd visit as a child, playfully frolicking with your cousin, filling the air with contagious laughter. Your exuberance, rivaling Ashlee's boundless energy, made our home a lively haven. Every moment we shared with you was a precious gift, a treasure we hold dear.

Though I'm deprived of witnessing you blossom into the remarkable man you were destined to become, I recall how resiliently you bore the loss of grandpa, whose love for you knew no bounds, evident in the joy your visits brought him and the eager help you offered. My cherished great nephew, your departure has left an unbridgeable chasm, a testament to the irreplaceable brilliance that was your life. you will never be forgotten. Love, great Auntie Alice “ Robbie was a great friend and a straight gangster in the truest sense—confident, loyal, and always himself. He worked hard, loved to spit bars, and loved spending time fishing with the people he cared about. He never held grudges and always made sure the people around him were okay. I knew him from the time he was about 15 years old, and over the years I watched him grow while never losing what made him Robbie. Last summer he got me back into fishing, and those are memories I'll carry with me for the rest of my life. He was the kind of person who left an impression wherever he went and will never be forgotten by those who knew him.

“Robbie was one of the kindest people. He was so outgoing and smart. He loved going on trips with me, and I loved taking him. Every Friday was a new adventure for us, and it was always the best. He was so full of life, always making jokes and laughing. He loved music and expressing himself through it. The world feels quieter now that you’re gone. You were mine and JJ’s first best friend, our forever friend. You were a beautiful person, and it hurts writing about it when I should be able to tell you that you’re loved forever and you’ll be missed forever. I hope you’re up there making Grandpa laugh ❤️
