“Murph, I will never forget you. Some of the best high school memories I have are of hanging out with you and Brian Davis and listening to you guys jam out at Brian's grandparents house. Good times and great friends. God speed my friend, I will see you again someday.

“*Ronnie is a kind man and a loving father to his son, Tanner Lee. I use the word,"is", because Ronnie is alive in our memories and in our hearts. He is alive in his son, Tanner Lee, everyday Tanner is kind to someone or he plays his guitar and shares happiness in the world, Ronnie is remembered. Ronnie instilled that quality in Tanner. The quality to be kind and giving. When Tanner would share Christmas with Ronnie, Tanner would always come back with gifts for us all. Ronnie always thought of Mom and Nana Bea. Ronnie always provided for anyone in need. Thank you for our son Tanner Lee. I will make sure that he grows up to be a good man who loves others and loves God. We will miss you very much, but we will always keep you in our hearts. Fly like the Eagles!!! we love you! Susan Pigeon, mother of Tanner Murphy
Love you Ronnie!!! From Tate and Nana Bea*
