“ I’m so blessed to have had you as my grandpa for 28 years. Thank you for always going above and beyond for me, and always supporting me in everything I ever decided to do in life. You were my number one fan. God has blessed me in so many ways but having you as my grandpa was one of the biggest blessings I ever received. You have no idea how much I appreciated you. I’m so glad I have so many memories with you, from your pranks you would pull on all of us, to teaching me how to dance and don’t forget how to wrestle. I remember one time that you decided to play a prank on me when I was little. You were acting like the truck had stopped in the middle of no where, and you said the pigs were gonna attack us haha it sounds so silly now but at the time I was terrified. I remember our Monday nights we would watch wrestling, and we would try and wrestle like the guys on tv haha. You use to always love to dance and every chance there was some music on you made sure to dance with me. And to this day I remember all the oldies you would sing to me. Oldies will forever be my go to in music because like you said they tell stories and they have meaning behind them. So everytime I hear an oldie come on I will think of you. I’m gonna miss baking you brownies I know how much you loved them and just cooking for you in general. Every time we make chile and beans with corn bread I will think of you. That meal was one of your favorites. You were such a strong man. I never met anybody As strong as you. You went through a lot of ups and downs in this life. But you always fought through it. You used to take care of me and at the end we switched roles and I helped take care of you. You never left my side I wasn’t ever going to leave yours. I know you were tired and you were ready to go home. And that’s ok grandpa I understand your purpose was for filled in this life. You know longer have to fight you can be at peace now. I will live each day to make you proud. Because I know even though you’re not here you’re still my number one fan, and will always be right there with me. I will miss you so much, but I know you’re with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. And this isn’t goodbye it’s just see you later. I love you so much and you will forever be in my heart. ❤️
