In Loving Memory of Tomas Morales

March 7, 1942 – May 17, 2026

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Tomas Morales, who peacefully passed away on Sunday, May 17, 2026, surrounded by the love of his family. Tomas was born on March 7, 1942, in Santa María del Oro, Durango, where his story began—a life marked by love, strength, and dedication to family.

Tomas was a devoted husband to his beloved wife, Lilia Morales, with whom he shared a lifetime of love, commitment, and cherished memories.

He leaves behind a loving family who will forever honor his memory, including his wife Lilia, and his children: Martha, Jesus, Isidro, Allen, and Gloria.

Tomas was also a proud grandfather to numerous grandchildren each of whom brought him immense joy and pride.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Genaro Morales and Elvira Morales; his beloved son, Johnnie; and his cherished grandchildren, Victor and Tony.

He was a member of St. John's catholic church and was employed by Armstrong construction company before he came to retire.

Tomas will be remembered for his unwavering love for his family, his resilience, his wisdom, and the lasting legacy he leaves behind. Though he may no longer walk beside us, his love and lessons will remain in our hearts forever.

Descansa en paz, Tomas. Tu amor y legado vivirán por siempre
