“ Sincere condolences to Tommy’s family.
I worked with Tommy when I was a young man. Tommy really taught me that GIVING isn’t necessarily between the giver and the recipient, but rather the giver and God. I’m thankful he taught me that. Rest in God’s peace Tommy, thank you.

“ My Primo Tommy and I moved to Washington State with My Prima Betty and Mario along with all the kids Mario Jr , Natasha, Leanne and Christopher, after a few months Betty came and told both of us we had to get our butts busy and get a job, we went to the Army Recruiting Office and joined the Washington National Guard, we were getting ready to graduate downtown Lawton Oklahoma, when I got into trouble with the cops and asked him to go back to the dorms and get some money I had stashed to bail me out...he went and got it and bailed me out just in time before the military police got there...whewwwww!.I'll never forget you you primo! I Love You Tommy Martinez!
