“ I meet Mr. Scoot about 2yrs. ago when I was mowing the property and cleaning up for them Zane was in no shape to get it done but was sure a big help in many ways. I really enjoyed seating at his table talking with him. He so wanted me to get his dodge truck up and running but I was told not to worry about that truck kinda tickled me hearing from Zane don't do it the story was so funny to me and at the same time made a lot of sense. Mr. Scoot you are and will always be in my heart sir and missed. Until we meet again sir you are in the better place. 🙏

“ I haven't heard from Butch for many years. We shared a mobile home when we were just kids. Butch was probably one of the closest friends I ever had. We shared a lot of experiences when we were young. In fact, I was with Butch when he first met Judy. We were heading north on Main Street in Roswell. Judy was behind us in her car. Butch looked in the rear view mirror and Judy was sticking her tongue out at him. I guess Butch knew when he was beat. The next thing that I knew, they were married. Just, if there's anything that I can do, let me know. Love you. Roy Daughtry
